

International Montessori Master Degree Program

(Dual Degree Program with Montessori Teacher Certification)

Application Period: January 1 ~ April 30

Introduction of Program

The dual master degree program offers students who wish to obtain M.S. in Infant and Child Care, and M.Ed. in Early Childhood Education with Montessori teacher certification. The M.S. degree is offered by National Taipei University of Nursing and Health Sciences (NTUNHS) and the M.Ed. degree is offered by Oklahoma City University (OKCU), United States of America. This program is designed for students with a bachelor's degree. Students take courses leading to Montessori teacher certification while simultaneously working on two master degrees. Upon completion of the Montessori courses, they will need only 6 credits to complete the master's program. The program plan contains a concentration in Montessori methods and supportive coursework in other fields, research, and evaluation of young children.

Scope of Curriculum

- Students are required to complete 32 credits of study: Sensory Motor Learning, Psychological Bases of Learning and Guiding Young Children, Perceptual Development, Basic Concepts of Early Math, Language and Reading Development and Cultural Studies, Music and Movement (workshop), Materials, Project and Observation I & II, Methods of Research, Evaluation of Young Children and a 9.5 months internship.
- Students will earn two degrees and a teaching certification after the 1.5 year program is successfully completed.
 - M.Ed. degree in Early Childhood Education, offered by Oklahoma City University (OKCU), U.S.A.
 - M.S. degree in Infant and Child Care, offered by National Taipei University of Nursing and Health Sciences (NTUNHS), Taiwan.
